Announcement: Florida State University Retirement Planning Seminar –
Wednesday, March 27, 2013, 8:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. in the FSU College of Medicine Auditorium (located in the College of Medicine Administration Building – 1115 West Call Street).

Retirement is closer than you think! Retirement doesn't have to mean the same thing to everyone, but everyone should prepare! Join us as representatives from the Florida Division of Retirement and Ernst & Young/MyFRS help employees plan for this exciting phase of life.

MetLife and the Benefits Section of Human Resources are presenting a seminar for employees interested in information regarding retirement. This is a voluntary program, but it is considered time-worked for those who attend during their working hours (with supervisor approval).

Topics will include: Florida Retirement System Pension Plan Benefits, Estate Planning, Retiree Insurance and University Benefits. We will also have representatives available from the Florida Retirement System Investment Plan and Social Security Administration to answer questions, as well as several retirement plan vendors [including ORP, Deferred Compensation (457) and FSU 403(b)].

 Door prizes and refreshments will be provided in the College of Medicine Atrium area, adjacent to the auditorium. Please note that food and drinks are not allowed in the auditorium. Lunch will not be provided.

For more information, or to register, please e-mail: retirement@admin.fsu.edu

For assistance, or to request an accommodation due to a disability, please contact the Benefits Office at 644-4017, retirement@admin.fsu.edu, or 711(Florida Relay Service). Accommodation requests should be received at least 5 working days prior to the seminar.
